

Earth Observation for Sustainable Development

Building Partnerships between Africa and Europe

Thursday, 8th of December 2016

21, Rue Montoyer – 1000 Brussels, from 10.00 to 13.00

Earth Observation for Sustainable Development

Building of partnerships between Europe and Africa

09.30 | Welcome breakfast and registration

PART 1 |

Earth Observation for Sustainable Development by GiZ, Bremen Representation to the EU and NEREUS

10.00 | Welcome by NEREUS Vice-President, Christian Bruns

| Introductory remarks by NEREUS Secretary General, Roya Ayazi

10.15 | Brief round of presentation by the participants

10.30 | Presentation of the Initiative “Earth Observation for Sustainable Development. Building partnerships between Africa and Europe” by GiZ Director Bremen Office, Martin Foth-Feldhusen

11.00 | Moderated debate with the audience

11.45 | Coffee break

PART 2 |

Regional applications for sustainable development projects by NEREUS members

12.00 | NEREUS members present regional applications using Earth Observation data

- EO Regions! by Philippe Ledent (Spacebel, Wallonia Region)
- Copernicus as support to Africa development. Mozambique case study by Almudena Sanchez Gonzales (Head of GMV Innovation Unit, Comunidad de Madrid)
- By Antoine Mangin (Scientific Director of ACRI, Provence Alpes Cote d’Azur Region)

12.45 | Moderated debate with the audience

13.30 | End of meeting